

Elements of Risk Management

May 13, 2025 - Hybrid: Jefferson City or Online

CLASS OVERVIEW & TOPICS

Knowing the types and classifications of exposures their clients face helps them to design more effective insurance and risk management programs. This course provides tools and techniques to identify exposures, assess their impact on clients' assets and operations, consider a variety of loss funding/insurance options, control losses and claims, and finally to implement risk management and loss control procedures and monitor their progress.
